

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1893.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, MARCH 12, 1907

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

HAREN—SCAREM.
The sultan got sore on his harem
And invented a scheme for to scarem.
So he caught him a mouse
Which he loosed in the house—
(The confusion is called haren-scarem.)
—Exchange.

Mr. Edward Dooley is very ill at his home in West Third street.

It is now likely Lexington will have a Chautauqua from June 25th to July 5th.

Be sure to let me tell you about some houses for sale.
JOHN DULEY.

Mrs. Frank Eppenstain, who has been ill the past two weeks with grip at her home corner of Wood and Third streets, is convalescing.

If you want to be amused and enjoy a pleasant evening go to the Opera-house tonight and witness a good play with lots of fun between acts.

Frances Owens, the beautiful little daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. C. T. Huff of East Second street, Sixth Ward, has recovered from her recent sickness, much to the gratification of her many friends.

The A. S. of E. has received over 100,000 pounds of tobacco at Dover and the grading is very satisfactory to the growers. Mr. John E. Bouldin is Superintendent of the Dover warehouse with Sam. N. True, Foreman.

Mr. George W. Oldham of The Ledger staff was called to Cincinnati this morning by a message saying that his wife had been injured. The extent of her injuries is not known and it is to be hoped that she is not seriously injured.

Judge Matt M. Bedwine has declined to try the case of Judge James Hargis, which was transferred to Elliott county on a change of venue from Breathitt, and Governor Beckham will be called upon to appoint another special Judge.

The play at the Washington last evening was highly enjoyed by those present. Brunswick Bros. are making good as an entertaining Stock Company. The melodramas, vaudeville and every feature of the show is excellent and made a distinct hit. Tonight, "Dora Thora" at popular prices.

Miss Violet Buckingham is down on the program for an address on Junior Work Friday at the Bluegrass District Convention of the Christian Endeavorers which will be held March 14th and 15th in the Central Christian Church at Lexington. This district takes in the counties of Franklin, Fayette, Scott, Woodford and Jessamine.

Now that there is a vacancy in the City Attorneyship the question is frequently asked, "who will Council appoint?" While the position is one of prime importance in looking after City affairs, the salary attached is not such as to attract the attention of a lawyer of any considerable practice—$500 is rather an insignificant sum in the eyes of most barristers at the Mason Bar.

A fair sized Monday night crowd attended the revival service at the Third street M. E. Church last evening being now conducted by the Pastor, Rev. G. W. Buxton. His sermon was both helpful and instructive, showing as he did most clearly the great privilege of being sons of God and heirs together with Christ. Services tonight at 7:15. There will be special music at each service as well as hearty congregational singing. You are most cordially invited to these services.

DR. RUSSELL WHITE.

Dr. Russell White died suddenly at 8:30 last night at his home at Bernard.

He was 42 years of age and very well known in the county.

His wife, Mrs. Laura White, survives, and he was a brother of Mr. D. Sam White of this city.

The funeral occurs Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late home.

Interment in the Maysville Cemetery.

MISS TILLIE WHITE.

Miss Tillie White died this morning at 2 o'clock at her home in Wood street, after a lingering illness from consumption.

She was 27 years of age and is survived by one brother, Mr. Duke White.

Funeral at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the residence.

Interment in the Maysville Cemetery.

FIGHT ON HORD'S HILL

Between Colored Amazons Bell Haley Knocked Down and Out

An Amazonian fight took place yesterday afternoon at Jerry Gant's home on Hord's Hill that may terminate in the death of one of the combatants.

Generally it is a woman who figures as the party of the first part; this case is an exception however, and a colored Adonis appears as the bone of contention, in which Hattie Smith and Bell Haley are contenders for his affection.

In a quarrel as to which was the chosen one, Bell is said to have landed with her fist on Hattie's proboscis and the latter returned the compliment by swiping the former over the head with a pitcher and knocking her into dreamland from which she did not awaken for several hours, although she had the attention of a physician.

The Smith woman later gave herself up to Constable Marsh, and that officer yanked her before Squire Boyer who held her over in the sum of $250 for appearance, and in default she now languishes in the county bastille.

David Davis, aged 79, is dead from Bright's disease at his home in Bath county.

Postmaster F. M. Dunham of Dover, accompanied by his son Everett, was in Maysville Saturday and called at THE LEDGER office.

The Postoffice Department at Washington announces that on March 1st there were 659 rural routes in operation in Kentucky and twenty-one petitions pending.

Mr. Will Myers, now the accommodating Agent of the C. and O. at Dover, has received a deserved promotion and Wednesday will take charge of the company's passenger business at Russell, opposite Ironton, as City Ticket Agent. Later, Mr. Myers will remove from Maysville with his wife to reside at Ironton. Mr. Bruce Henderson, night operator at Dover, will come here to hold down the night office at Fairgrounds. Mr. C. B. Black, who has the night office near Dayton, will be given the night trick at Dover, where he has purchased property and his family reside. Mr. Matt Thompson of Covington is to be Agent at Dover.

Portsmouth's streetcar strike is still unsettled.
